Re: United States v. Emanuele Favuzza
Docket No. 11-0030 (KAM)

Dear Judge Matsumoto:

I respectfully submit a proposed Order for the Court's consideration authorizing interim CJA payments without the discretionary 20% withholding and authorizing payments of the 20% amounts previously withheld on submitted interim CJA vouchers. According to Jerry Tritz, withheld amounts are not mandatory and that many districts do not have the discretionary withholding amounts on interim vouchers. In pending cases before Chief Judge Amon and Judge Gleeson, my similar applications were granted with the issuance of similar orders as that enclosed.

I have previously made this application to the Court under a cover letter dated January 29, 2012. I have not heard any response, so I am renewing my application. As set forth in the enclosed proposed order.

I thank Your Honor for your courtesy and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Ephraim Savitt
